Square Dance Spring Festival time is on us again, and this year there are several more than there have been in the past. Check the "Coming Events" column for places and dates . . . Advance notices of Square Dance Summer Camps has reached Ye Editor; Paul Kermit of The Lighted Lantern being first with his announcement. Announcements of camps will be included in following issues . . . Al Brownlee, the hard-working caller in Odessa, and around the Permian Basin, tells us that Les Gotcher called to a full house in Odessa recently . . . Midland has formed a new S/D Club, the "Midland S/D Club," which meets on the 2nd and 4th Tuesdays . . . "Al" is also calling in Lamesa on the 2nd and 4th Fridays. Those West Texans really enjoy their dancing, and "Al" sees to it that they always have a lot of fun . . . Les Gotcher and Frankie Lane were visiting callers recently at the Cavalero Lodge, and to say that the dancers in this area enjoyed their calling is putting it mildly . . . Also visiting the Dallas area were Mr. and Mrs. H. L. (Barney) Barnes, from North Bend, Oregon. While here, they square danced every night, of course, and Barney also guest called some, to the enjoyment of all . . . B & S subscribers can do their bit to help us by sending in their due subscription. Just check your "Mail Tag" for the expiration date . . . Jack Atkinson of New York is sponsoring a movement to present to an outstanding square or folk dance leader a trophy; all would be eligible to vote, and to be done by postcard. Watch for article in March issue . . . Mrs. N. B. Chancellor of Dallas has a nice writeup in The Dallas News recently, regarding those beautiful dresses she makes . . . The Out of This World Club will hold a dinner dance at the new Statler Hilton Hotel here, March 17. We understand tickets are already sold out (not even a ticket for "The Press" is left). This club always does things up great, due no doubt to the leadership of "Mac," and the hardworking officers . . . New S/D classes are being started all over town; it is a wonderful sight to attend some of those classes and see the enthusiasm of the beginners, and the willing helpfulness of the experienced dancers. The Dallas square dance picture is really promising at this time . . . Don't forget to call WH6-7204 if you are in need of Square Dance or Round Dance records. Swede's Record Service is the only shop specializing in these records in North Texas, and deliveries of new records are arriving constantly; they accept mail orders, too . . .

Frank Dutton, impressario of the Cavalero Lodge, has added a skating rink to his enterprises. It is located around the corner from Cavalero Lodge, and Frank tells us square dancers who have children, and are reluctant to leave them at home when they go dancing, can take them to the Rink where they can enjoy themselves while their parents are having their fun. The children will be under supervision of instructors at all times.

HI-DE-HO DINNER DANCE MARCH 30

Hi-De-Ho S/D Club will hold its Spring Dinner Dance at the American Legion Hall, 501 S. Lancaster St., Friday night, March 30. Everyone is invited.

SQUARE HOUSEWIFE

By DOROTHY PACELLI

Last night I was frilly and dainty,
A picture in nylon and net.
My slipper-shod feet were just flying;

It's something I can't quite forget.
Though this morning I'm only a housewife

Clad in jeans and a T-shirt severe,
Part of last night is still with me,
And the voice of the caller I hear.
The washer is beating a rhythm,
A tattoo that's four to the bar;
It's leading me ever so gently
Into an eight hand star.

I cross-trail through to the close-line

And pass my corner by;
I do-si-do all round the basket
(And the neighbors wonder why!)
I do right-face turns at the bedstead

As I make it smooth and neat;
The cooking, the dishes and dusting—

I race on with dancing feet.
The poise, the grace and the rhythm

Keep housework from being a bore
And make me gay and light hearted

Until we go dancing once more.

OKLAHOMA TO S. DIEGO SQUARE DANCE MOTOR CARAVAN

More than 200 Oklahoma square dancers are making plans to travel to the Fifth National Square Dance Convention next summer in San Diego in a huge motor caravan with sightseeing, meal stops, trail dances, and lodging all planned and scheduled in advance.

Howard Thornton, 2936 Bella Vista Drive, Midwest City, Oklahoma, is serving as Caravan Director and is arranging all trip details. The Caravan is sponsored by the Oklahoma State Federation of Square Dance Clubs who were hosts to the Fourth National Convention in Oklahoma City during April, 1955.

The Caravan will leave Oklahoma on Sunday, June 17, with night stops en route scheduled for Lubbock, El Paso, Tucson and Yuma, arriving in San Diego at noon Thursday, June 21. The return trip will feature visits to Disneyland, Hollywood, Los Angeles, Las Vegas, San Francisco, Salt Lake City, Grand Canyon, and other points with each dancer selecting his own route.

"I'm an Okie and Proud of It" has been adopted as the Caravan slogan and colorful badges, bumper stickers, posters and other publicity will announce the fact all along the way and at the Convention.

Complete with square dance band, the Caravan will either put on or attend special Trail Dances each night of the trip. Driving will be limited to a maximum of 360 miles per day with the average being closer to 300 thus allowing time for sightseeing and special events along the way.

Deluxe motels with swimming pools will be used en route with the exception of the Lubbock stop which will be in hotels. A special noon lunch stop will be made in Carlsbad Caverns on Monday, June 18.

In San Diego where the National Convention will be held on June 22, 23, and 24, an Oklahoma dinner with national leaders as special guests will be held on Friday evening, June 22, of the Convention.

Full information and registration forms for the Caravan may be had by writing or calling Howard Thornton, Caravan Director, 2936 Bella Vista Drive, Midwest City, Oklahoma — Phone PErshing 2-3487. A $25.00 per couple housing deposit plus San Diego fees holds a place on the Caravan for square dancers.

S/D Ramblings

By LOUIE RATLIFF
El Paso, Texas

The Southwestern Square Dancers Assn. wound up 1955 with a 5th Saturday membership dance, December 31, in the showrooms of A. B. Poe Motor Co., downtown El Paso, thus climaxing one of the most successful years enjoyed by the organization and adding another spoke in the wheel of gayety and splendor that always prevails in this historic border city that is located in the western-most corner Attention, Subscribers!

You, the Subscriber, could help make things lot easier on us if you would do the following: Check your Mailing Tag (for example: John Doe 3/55). That "3/55" means that your subscription expires with this issue (February). So, you can help by sending in your check for $1.50, or hand it to "Swede." Your help would be very much appreciated in this matter.

of the Lone Star State, along the silvery Rio Grande.

A lively and noisy crowd, representing the territory, was on hand to dance out the old year and welcome the new one in traditional fashion that is seldom equaled. During a coffee break, new officers were elected for '56. Shelby Mayo, of El Paso, a staunch supporter and popular young caller, was elected chairman by acclamation, to head the S-W Assn., one of the oldest Square Dance organizations, having been organized in 1947.

Elected to support the new chairman as members of the board of directors were the following: Glen Tiner, Tom Thorne, Jack Howell, Everett Moss, and Earl Miner, all of El Paso; Clyde Underwood of Las Cruces, N. M., and Mike Turner of Alamogordo, N. M. The holdover board members are Bill Bailey, Dorothy Boyd and Chuck Hamlett.

The officers and membership at large, extend a wholehearted vote of thanks to outgoing chairman, Bill Muzzy and his many committees who so successfully guided the Assn. during its many activities during the past year. The gains during '55 may be measured in many ways, membership, materially and a host of new friends as evidenced by the good-fellowship that prevails.

At the first meeting of the Board of Directors of the Southwestern Square Dancers Assn. in 1956, the following committee chairmen were appointed: Secretary, Mrs. Herschel Boyd; Treasurer, Mrs. Tom Thorne; Entertainment, Ed Viands; Finance, Mrs. C. A. Hanigan; News Letter, David Trowell; Publicity, Louie Ratliff; and Membership, Alice Grant. Other vacancies and special committees were to be appointed at a later date. Meeting of the Board will take place the first Tuesday of each month and visitors will be welcome as each meeting will be open to one and all.

Some discussion of future plans took place, one of which was to contact leaders from the various outlying districts, clubs and callers to obtain as many names of dancers as possible in order to compile a more complete and up-to-date

THE "SNACK" KORNER

By "COOKIE"

This month we are featuring that old stand-by, but always tasteful morsel — the Doughnut. We guarantee everyone will back for 3rd and 4th helpings when they get a taste of any of these.

Orange-Frosted Doughnuts

(Makes frosting for 24 doughnuts)

¼ cup butter or margarine
2 cups sifted confectioners sugar
2 tablesp. orange juice.
About 1 tablesp. lemon juice.
1 teaspoon grated orange rind

Place butter or margarine in medium mixing bowl; let stand at room temperature to soften. Work with back of wooden spoon or electric mixer at high speed until light and fluffy. Gradually stir in about 1/3 of the confectioners' sugar. Then add remaining sugar and juices, alternately, beating until very smooth. Add only enough lemon juice to make of spreading consistency. Add rind. Use to ice 24 doughnuts.

Sherry-Apple Doughnuts

Split doughnuts in half. Put one half in dessert dish; sprinkle with sherry; cover with apple sauce. Place second half of doughnut over apple sauce and sprinkle with sherry. Fill center with whipped cream.

Prune-Doughnut Dessert

Split 5 or 6 sugared doughnuts in half. Put one half of each in dessert dish; spread with prune filling and cover with second half of doughnut. Fill center of doughnut with whipped cream.

To make prune filling, combine in saucepan 2 jars or cans (1 cup) strained prunes, ¼ cup granulated sugar, 2 teaspoons lemon juice, and ½ teaspoon cinnamon. Simmer, stirring, until thick enough to mound when dropped from spoon.

Doughnut-Coffee Double

With cups of hot coffee serve doughnuts iced with coffee icing. Following procedure for Orange-Frosted Doughnuts, combine 2 tablespoons butter, 1 cup sifted confectioners' sugar, and ½ teaspoon instant coffee dissolved in 1 tablespoon hot water. If more liquid is needed, use a few drops of cream. Use to ice 12 doughnuts.

Tea Doughnuts

Split plain doughnuts; toast under broiler; spread with butter and orange marmalade. Serve with hot tea. A tea-time favorite in Australia.

While "HASHIN' UP THE DEVIL" was voted the most popular hoedown in the recent contest conducted by HOEDOWN RECORD COMPANY, following are some of the statements made by leading callers about other hoedowns on HOEDOWN.

HD No. 501—"RAGTIME ANNIE"—The best recording of this ever released by anyone and I have a collection.

HD No. 502—"FIGHTING PEACOCK"—The chug rhythm in this is terrific, especially when the banjo leads. It really gives a caller a thrill and the dancers love it.

HD No. 503—"EIGHTH OF JANUARY"—It would be hard to choose any of your hoedowns as being "best." They are all outstanding, but I particularly enjoy calling to this number. It does something for me that I am able to pass on to the dancers. I use them all, however.

FLASHES FROM FIFTH NATIONAL CONVENTION

You remember—the 5th Annual National Square Dance Convention — Balboa Park, San Diego, California — June 22-24, 1956. And here's the latest . . .

CLUB PRESIDENTS MEET

In January, newly elected Club Presidents from all over San Diego County met to be indoctrinated on the progress of Convention plans and ideas for California Hospitality. All will be assigned to committee work, the local registration contest, and sales of program ads. Everybody will be busy!

CALIFORNIA ADVISORS

The nucleus of San Diego Workshop Chairmen is augmented by advisors within the state and outside, for the various departments. Bob Osgood will work with Ken Dobler on Squares; Frank Hamilton will help Bill Stone on Rounds; Ralph Maxheimer with Tom Smart will work on the Cavalcade which will present square dancing as it is done across country, and on exhibitions. National Advisors will be announced soon.

WORKSHOPS, CLINICS, EXHIBITIONS, ETC.

Workshops and Clinic sessions, and panels will be scheduled mornings and afternoons during all three days of the Convention. Impromptu dancing will also be in progress for those not participating in the Workshops. Exhibitions and Demonstrations will take place in Balboa Bowl mornings, afternoons and evenings. Round Dancing is to be integrated with the regular square dance sessions. Contrabands and Quadrilles are also scheduled.

OLDEST ACTIVE SQUARE DANCER

George Singer of Tucson, Arizona, 87 years young, has been appointed Honorary Vice Chairman of the Reception Committee to assist Howard Dudley, local chairman. "Pop" as he is affectionately known by his many friends, officially represented Tucson at the Oklahoma City Convention and will repeat at San Diego. Anyone care to challenge his record—75 years of continuous Square Dancing—and still going strong?

PAPPY SHAW TO BE PRESENT

A National Convention wouldn't be right at all without the presence of Dr. Lloyd "Pappy" Shaw of Colorado Springs, who has been appointed "National Host." He'll be on the front line with a hand-clasp and will participate in panels, etc.

OKLAHOMA RESERVATIONS RECEIVED

Reservations have been received from the mammoth Oklahoma Caravan—over 70 cars coming out en masse with Howard Thornton as Caravan Director. Their plans to descend on Tucson June 19 necessitated the folks there changing their Trail Dances one day ahead—June 19 and 20. An Oklahoma Delegation Dinner on Friday evening in San Diego is being planned by Chairman Thornton.

ADMONITION TO CALLERS

Callers desiring program spots must accompany their requests with registration cards. In case of last-minute changes of plans, full refunds will be allowed upon five days' notice. This will assure all callers a fair chance to appear on the program.

PROGRAM ADS AND BOOTH SPACE

Program ads are pouring in at Convention Headquarters. If you desire space in the program, send in your request immediately. The deadline is May 15, 1956. 7,500 will be printed by offset printing and will sell for 25c each. Booth space will be limited, preference being given to national concerns. Selling in booths will be permitted by special arrangement with the City Park and Recreation Department of San Diego.

For information on an aspect of the Convention, write Chairman Bud Dixon, No. 5 North Second Avenue, Chula Vista, California.

East Texas Chatter

Seems like during January we just bust out in a regular rash of elections. Everybody hustling around and picking new officers for the clubs, councils and associations. District No. 1 of the Texas Square Dancers Association has elected Bill Choate as prse.; Clyde Sweeney, 1st vice-pres.; Eddie Farrow, 2nd vice-pres.; and Arna Mae Moss as sec.-treas., to serve for the year of 1956. District No. 1 has representatives from the towns of Beaumont Port Arthur, Orange, Livingston, Silsbee, Port Neches, Nederland, and Sour Lake.

The Beaumont Area Square Dance Council has elected Clayton Mills as pres.; Raymon Gowan, vice-pres.; Floyd Shofner, sec.; and Frances Jones, treas. We haven't had a full report from all of the local clubs as to who will be their guiding lights for the coming year but hope to have this info soon.

The DERA club celebrated the New Year with a fine party on Dec. 31 at the Armory in Orange. Yours truly counted 13 squares in the grand march with more coming in shortly after. Neil Arnold and his band gave out with the hoedowns and the quadrilles and everyone danced the Old Year away. Jack Baker, this club's prexy, says he has eight more squares of beginners coming along and the square dance picture in Orange is beginning to look much brighter.

The Do-Si-Do Club of Beaumont celebrated a late New Year on January 5 at the YWCA with Clyde Sweeney and Sam Gougenheim emceeing a fine program of dances by local club callers.

The Wagon Wheel Club installed T. P. Jones as president at an installation party at the YMCA on January 12 and the Bar-B Club followed with a large turnout at the WOW Hall on Jan. 14 when Andy Lyons became the Big Wheel for this year. With all the parties, dances, etc. on during this month, the boot shops should be able to balance their budget with half-sole repairs.

The March of Dimes has been helped by the area square dancers with several benefits, all proceeds going to the Polio Fund.

WE APOLOGIZE

Some 60 subscribers did not receive their Jan. issue of Balance & Swing due to a mishap in the mailing. We would appreciate if those that did not receive their copy would drop us a postcard, and they will receive their copy by return mail.

Neil Arnold and his band have furnished the music for most of these dances as their contribution to this worthwhile cause.

The Spinning Wheel of Port Neches kicked off with a dance at the Texaco Club on Jan. 20. The Square D followed on Jan. 21. Port Arthur gave a street dance on the 23rd and the Beaumont Area Council wound up with a dance at the Harvest Club on the 26th. We vote an orchid to the square dancers and to Neil Arnold and his boys for their enthusiastic cooperation that made all of these benefits the huge success that they were.

It was much to ye old correspondents regret that he had to miss Manning and Nita Smith's New Year's House Party this year.

In the past we have never had so much fun, danced so much, met so many old friends and had so little sleep as we did at the Smith's shindigs. Reports have come in that this year's affair was no different, lucky sleepy souls.

DATES TO PASTE IN YOUR HAT

February 4, Lamar College Gym, Texas Square Dancers Assn. Winter Jamboree.

March 3, Harvest Club, Beaumont Area Council's Spring Jamboree.

July 28, Harvest Club (it's air-conditioned), Texas Square Dancers Assn. Summer Festival, Dist. 1. September 8, Harvest Club, Beaumont Area Council's Fall Festival.

November 10, Harvest Club, Wagon Wheel Club Anniversary Party (Everybody's invited).

Just remember to drift down Beaumont way on these dates and it's guaranteed that you will have the time of your life. So long and don't forget "Listen to the Caller"—she may be your wife.—BILL CHOATE.

SKIT-SKAT CLUB (Dallas)

The Skit-Skat Club continues to enjoy Square Dancing at its very best. Jimmy McManus and the Western Ranch Hands provide the calling and music that we love so much. The doors at Cavalero Lodge are wide open on the 1st and 3rd Saturday nights for anyone desiring to square dance.

Talk is increasing about the National Square Dance Convention in San Diego next June. Several Skit-Skaters have already made plans to go, and many others are trying to arrange their vacations so they may go also.

That Corner Gal . .

Spring is definitely in the air and we are beginning to think of our spring and summer wardrobes. With most of us it is both something new and something old.

Here is an excellent and easy way to refresh nylon net petticoats which are now so popular.

Rinse petticoat with a mild detergent and let dry. Dip in a solution made from one package of Knox Gelatin and one gallon of water.

Hang from the top to dry.

This really gives those worn, limp petticoats a new, fresh look.

mailing list, enabling the Assn. to advertise more successfully the forthcoming events on the Square Dance calendar.

One of the highlights of the meeting was a report of Festival chairman, Loren Davis, commenting on the possibilities in the connection of El Paso's Diamond Jubilee Celebration and the part that the Square Dancers are expected to fulfill. The possibilities are unlimited, pointing to a full week of events, and climaxing with one grand effort toward an all-out-bang-up rip roaring shindig the night of May 5, at the El Paso Coliseum, things and more things, the likes of which you've never seen before at a Square Dance Festival, all of which is hoped will attract spectators to the mammoth sized hall and at the same time afford the avid dancer more than he bargained for as well, good music, surprises and plenty of dancing, no doubt.

NEWS FROM LUBBOCK

Couple dancing in Lubbock is still growing. All the square dance clubs do at least two squares and two rounds. One club, the Jeans & Queens have a 15-minute workshop period for learning a couple dance, taught by Horace Greenhill. The Tip-Toe, the original club, now 2½ years old, has never failed to have 25 couples. The Two-Stepers, the Baby Sister Club, almost two-steps off and leaves us. We are proud of our two club and want all of you to watch for our Spring Festival announcement which will be made soon.

The Tip-Toe had an original idea Wednesday night. They charged 10c a dance for the benefit of March of Dimes. Everyone cooperated and decided to make this an annual affair.

April 14 — Southwest District Festival, Wichita, Kan.
April 21 — Kansas State Festival, Topeka, Kan.
